NATIONS MEET
TO TALK OVER
AMERICAN AIDWAR-TORN ECONOMY OF EUROPE TO BE REBUILT

BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN

Paris, July 11 (AP)—Sixteen nations of western Europe tomorrow will launch an attempt to rebuild their war-torn economy with the promise of United States aid. Soviet Russia and the states within her orbit will not participate. Diplomats gathering for the opening meeting of the Marshall plan conference at 11 a. m. (5 a. m. CDT), tomorrow declared the ywere convinced the Soviet Union was out to break the Marshall program if possible, or at least limit its effectiveness.

Russia refused to act with Britain and France as a sponsoring power for the conference and all eight nations now tied to the Soviet orbit rejected invitations issued by the British and French.

With the co-sponsors, Britain and France, the nations attending the conference will be Belgium, Italy, Portugal, Eire, Greece, Turkey, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Iceland, Austria, Switzerland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

Definite Program Expected

The conference grew out of a statement by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall on June 5 at Harvard university that the United States would aid European rehabilitation, provided the European countries would see what they could do for themselves and come up with a definite program.

Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov refused to accept the Marshall plan which he charged would mean interference into internal affairs of the European countries, and divide Europe into East-West blocs.

The conference is expected to set up committees to determine what European nations can do for themselves and how much U. S. aid might be required.

Some diplomats noted with interest reports that the Soviet shortly would initiate an aid program for Eastern states which stay out of the Marshall plan. This was taken as evidence of direct competition with the United States in backing continental reconstruction.

BY EDDY GILMORE

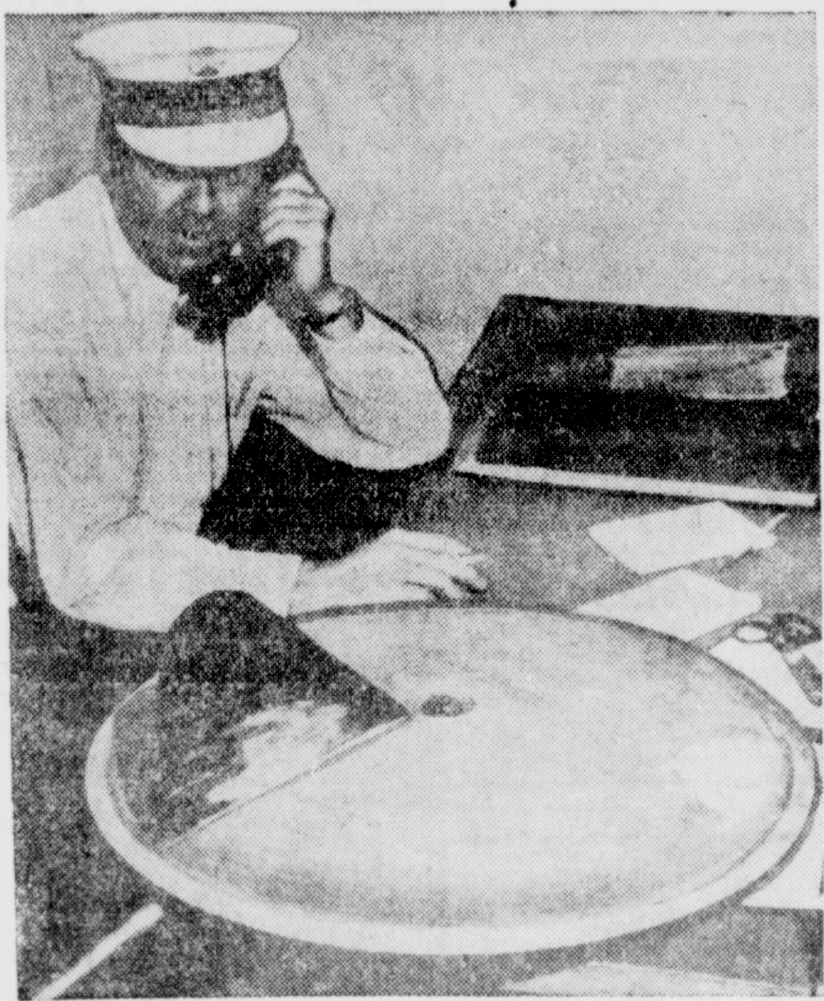

Moscow, July 11 (AP)—Prospects of definite Soviet aid for European nations—especially those which do not eventually associate themselves with the Marshall proposal—appeared to foreign observers today to a distant possibility.

On the eve of the Paris conference, Moscow's press and radio maintained attacks upon the American offer, repeating things they have said in past, but making new points also.

The Soviet viewpoint of several issues was more clearly outlined. These included:

1.—The prospect that Russia may offer aid in one form or another to European nations. (Previous dispatches have suggested this aid might take the form of grain, industrial goods and reduction, in the case of ex-enemy nations, of reparations.)

A growing belief by the Russians that they never really were wanted in the arrangements and that they were originally in-

Egypt Says Britain
Is Hostile, Demands
U.N. Get Troops Out

BY LARRY HAUCK

Lake Success, July 11 (AP)—The Egyptian government today accused Britain of a hostile policy toward Egypt and demanded that the United Nations order the evacuation of all British troops immediately.

Egypt warned that continued presence of British soldiers threatened world peace. Egypt also asked the U. N. to terminate the British regime in the Sudan to halt "a policy designed to sever the Sudan from Egypt."

Neither Egyptian nor British sources were ready to offer definite figures on how many troops were now on Egyptian soil, the London war office saying only "a few thousand" troops were there "liquidating" military establishments.

DISK IS FOUND,
ANOTHER HOAXFour Boys Admit Making
Saucer Discovered At
Twin Falls, Idaho

Twin Falls, Ida., July 11 (AP)—Assistant Police Chief L. D. McCracken said tonight four juveniles had admitted making a metallic disk found this morning in the yard of Mrs. T. H. Thompson of Twin Falls.

McCracken said that he was tipped that one of the boys knew about the case.

The boys explained it took them two days to make the "saucer" which resembled band cymbals placed together and with frosted plexi glass dome. McCracken said that Army officers who came to Twin Falls from Fort Douglas, Utah, had taken the disk to Salt Lake City.

The object measured 30 1/2 inches in diameter with a metal dome on one side and a plastic dome about 14 inches high on the opposite side anchored in place by what appeared to be stove bolts. The gadget was gold painted on one side and silver on the other.

The object was found by Mrs. F. W. Easterbrook, who said she heard a thudding noise about 2:30 a. m. She ran outside, saw the "disk" in an adjoining yard and called police.

Payday Postponed
For U. S. Senators

Washington, July 11 (AP)—The disbursing officer of the United States Senate used cards printed in red ink today to spread the bad news that the ghost isn't likely to walk next Tuesday.

"The legislative branch appropriation bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1947, not having been enacted, there are no funds available for Senate salaries," the notice said.

"Therefore, the July 15 payday is postponed until further notice."

WORK IS LAID

UP CONGRESSCASHING TERMINAL
OFF PROGRAM

BY EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

Washington, July 11 (AP)—The Senate Republican leadership drew up a schedule today for the last two weeks of this session of Congress and left off the work sheet bills to cash terminal pay bonds and to undertake a long range housing program.

However, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters that both of these measures and a number of others might be crowded into the adjournment schedule if senators will agree to "avoid lengthy debate."

Taft said Republicans expect to complete action upon the income tax reduction bill and some major appropriations measures by Tuesday.

He said a special Saturday session will be necessary tomorrow and probably also on July 19 and 26. Adjournment is scheduled on July 26.

Two Veterans' Bills

Taft listed the immediate schedule in this order:

1. President Truman's reorganization plan No. 3 which proposes to unify federal housing and home finance agencies. The House has approved this but the Senate banking committee approved and unless the Senate reverses its committee the plan will become effective.

2. A Senate bill for increasing the government allowances to war veterans who are students under the GI bill of rights.

3. A Senate bill to authorize the purchase of automobiles for disabled war veterans who are blind or amputees.

4. A House-approved bill that would allow citizens of Puerto Rico to elect their governor. He now is appointed.

5. A Senate bill to reinstate the Federal mine safety code that operated while the government held the coal mines.

6. A House-approved bill to freeze Social Security taxes at the present one per cent each on employers and employees instead of allowing an increase to 2 1/2 per cent each at the end of this year.

7. A Senate bill to extend the present sugar quota system for five years. Similar legislation is before the House.

8. A Senate resolution to approve the United Nations convention establishing U. S. trusteeship over numerous Pacific islands.

9. A Senate resolution approving terms of the location of United Nations headquarters in New York City.

10. A House-approved bill increasing pensions for Spanish-American War veterans.

SAFE-CRACKING
RING IS BROKENGang Accused Of 200
Jobs In Michigan
And Indiana

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 11 (AP)—Smashing of a smoothly-operated safe-cracking ring that netted $100,000 by robbing safes in Michigan and Indiana was announced here today.

Assistant Prosecutor Roger McMahon said the "Jeronis" gang had looted 200 safes in 47 Michigan and Indiana counties during the past three years.

One of the group who "wanted to quit" turned informer, McMahon said, enabling authorities, after months of investigation, to round up key members of the gang.

Warrants charging breaking and entering and safe cracking were issued against Alex Jerome, known as Alex Jeronis, 31, named by McMahon as the ringleader; George Nabkey, 25, George Hamilton, 27, all of Grand Rapids, and Albert Mulvey, 22, of Warrick, R. I.

Held without charge for questioning were Mrs. Jeronis, Len Price, 21, and William Dukes, 35, also of Grand Rapids. Another reputed member of the gang, Carl Herman, 19, is serving a term for robbery at the Michigan state reformatory at Ionia.

They were attracted to the scene, the sheriff related, because the man acted suspiciously when headlights of their car picked him up.

Mrs. Gerbes has been divorced from Kenneth Gerbes for three years, and Sheriff Retterer said Gerbes was at work in a diesel locomotive shop until 3 a. m. today.

Twenty-two workmen were burned on the face and arms in escaping from the building.

Appropriation Bill
Lists Four Billion
For Fighting Navy

Washington, July 11 (AP)—Congressional committees agreed today on a cool $13,342,000,000 for a variety of government expenditures in the fiscal year, which started July 1, including just over $4,000,000,000 for "an effective fighting navy."

Besides funds for Uncle Sam's sea-going forces, the total includes money for the Federal farm program and more than a score of independent agencies, including the Atomic Energy commission.

It represents approximately $621,000,000 less than President Truman requested in his budget, and some $502,000,000 more than the economy-minded House approved. The sums still are subject to change.

Far behind on appropriating money for the new fiscal year, which began July 1, the lawmakers put on full steam ahead to complete the job of providing the government with operating funds before they adjourn for a five-month vacation late this month.

Senator Saltonstall (R-Mass.) said the $4,000,000,000 granted by a Senate-House conference committee will allow the navy 395,000 men and 42,000 officers. It is more than $200,000,000 below Mr. Truman's budget estimate.

Among major changes from the House version, the Senate bill would provide $295,000,000 to make payment on this year's crop reduction bill aimed for a Senate vote tomorrow or Monday after abandoning hope for a decision tonight.

The House has passed the bill. Senator Morse (R-Ore.) tossed in eight amendments to the measure and explained them in a speech which lasted several hours.

The big, unanswered question remains: Will the Senate sustain the veto which President Truman has promised on the tax bill? The Senate roll call on passage of the bill will clarify the prospect.

A two-thirds majority in both houses is necessary to make the bill law over the President's objections. House Republicans say that an overriding majority is certain in that body, citing the 302 to 112 vote by which the bill passed last Tuesday.

Rep. Vursell (R-Ill.) told the House today that President Truman, in saying he would veto the bill struck "a dangerous blow at our constitutional government."

He said the President put the White House in the position of a powerful lobby, seeking to influence Congress.

Both Senators Millikin and Wherry (R-Neb.), the "whip" who rounds up the Republican votes—agreed that a final Senate vote could not come before tomorrow or Monday in view of the amendments offered by Senators Morse (R-Ore), McClellan (D-Ark) and Revercomb (R-Va.).

Senator McClellan by this afternoon had lined up 23 co-sponsors for an amendment which would permit husbands and wives in all states to split their income for tax purposes. This procedure, now legal in only 12 states, lowers the family's total tax in most instances.

The House, with only 30 of 100 members present, was in session for only 20 minutes.

The senate was in session for more than an hour as the main order of business was confirmation of 12 appointments to State positions made by Governor Sigler.

The light turn out in the two houses killed the possibility that the legislature might override any of the Governor Sigler's 10 vetoes.

The senate saw a brief flurry of excitement as Senator John W. Fletcher, Centerville Republican, offered a resolution objecting to the charging of a sales tax on top of the new three-cent cigarette tax. Fletcher said a ruling on the sales tax by Attorney General Eugene F. Black had caused a four-cent package increase in cigarettes in many communities.

"It was not the intention of the legislature to raise cigarettes four cents a package," said Fletcher. "That is simply and solely the idea of the attorney general."

Other senate members pointed out that a resolution would have no effect on the law and the notion was dropped.

The houses will meet Saturday (at 10 a. m.) for final adjournment.

Brutality Charged
On State Hospital
Staff At Pontiac

Port Huron, July 11 (AP)—State Representative Harry J. Phillips said today that he had sufficient evidence to justify criminal warrants against certain attendants at the Pontiac state hospital whom he accused of brutality toward mental patients.

He wrote Gov. Sigler asking him to order "a thorough investigation of the hospital."

Phillips, a Port Huron Republican, told Sigler that he had the names of "at least four attendants and choking patients in their wards, and there is definite indication that still more are guilty of the same brutality."

He told newsmen that between "20 and 30" attendants at the hospital have been discharged in recent months for mistreating patients or for incompetence.

workers went on strike against Hawaii's multimillion-dollar pineapple industry today, and the paralysis quickly spread to the waterfront as stevedores joined the cannery picket lines.

Danforth Sevier, vice president of Castle and Cooke, 744, 756, are the waterfront union, action "is in violation of its contract and is contrary to assurances given us yesterday when a union official denied there would be a sympathy strike."

Robert McElrath, publicity director of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, said there was no sympathy strike, but that "stevedores simply reported on the picket lines before the pineapple plants and did not report for work."

As a result, Sevier added, five ships, including one laden with perishable foods, were idle in Honolulu harbor.

The Longshoremen's Union called its 12,000 pineapple workers out on strike and reports indicated that the industry, which employs 23,500 persons at the peak, was paralyzed, with a $40,000,000 crop ripening in the fields.

The union cut its original 23 1/2 cents an hour raise demand to 15 cents, plus 10 cents an hour retroactive to Feb. 1, while the industry offered a flat 10-cent raise.

Guards Kill Negro
Convicts In Georgia
Work Camp Escape

Brunswick, Ga., July 11 (AP)—Five negro convicts were shot to death with shotguns and rifles and eight others wounded, two critically, today when they made an attempt to scale a 12-foot wire fence enclosing their prison camp near here.

Warden W. G. Worthy said five prison guards and police officers, who had been called to the camp to quell a disturbance, opened fire on 27 convicts as they raced toward the fence.

One of the negroes, shot as he climbed the fence, toppled dead on the other side. When the shooting ended, five negroes lay dead and eight were wounded. Fourteen prisoners came back with their hands up and surrendered, the warden said.

None of the negroes was armed with knives or firearms, the warden said, but several carried short iron bars and sticks.

Jones Is Confirmed
Despite Mud Toss
From Drew Pearson

Washington, July 11 (AP)—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of Rep. Robert F. Jones (R-Ohio) as a member of the Federal Communications Commission.

The action came after only brief discussion during which Senator Pepper (D-Ala.) called attention to charges by columnist Drew Pearson that Jones had been a member of the Black Legion, but was glad to hear that the committee had given Jones a clean bill.

Chairman Brewster (R-Me.) of the Interstate Commerce subcommittee, said the group was unanimously in favor of confirmation after three days of testimony.

The Senate also confirmed Harley Hise, of California, as a member of the Board of Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

ARMS SHIPPED

BANDIT RAIDSMUNITIONS SHARE
TOP PRIORITY WITH FOOD

BY EDWARD E. BOMAR

Washington, July 11 (AP)—The United States is speeding an initial $35,000,000 shipment of artillery, ammunition, and other military equipment to Greek armed forces before actual reconstruction efforts in Greece get into full swing.

Dwight Griswold, chief of the American economic aid mission, announced the move today on the eve of his departure for Athens. He said the shipment is going on an "anti-bandit basis" and that maintaining internal security in Greece is a vital part of the $300,000,000 enterprise.

The first munitions shipment, already en route to American ports for loading aboard ship, includes light mounted artillery deemed particularly suitable for the rugged Greek terrain, ammunition, mules, trucks and jeeps, and food for the Greek army.

Griswold told a news conference that munitions share top priority with emergency food, of which a first $7,000,000 shipment is currently being prepared. He also gave for the first time the tentative allotments for civilian reconstruction.

Full $300,000,000 Needed

Carrying out these plans hinges upon congressional willingness to vote the full $300,000,000 authorized.

The present estimates call for these outlays:

Military—$150,000,000 to enable the Greek army and navy to maintain internal security.

Agricultural rehabilitation—$19,000,000 for equipment, seeds and other supplies to spur particularly the production of tobacco, olives, and dried fruits because of their export importance.

Reconstruction—$43,000,000 for rebuilding railways, highways, industry, mining and telecommunications. Most of the contracts are expected to go to American firms, although others are not excluded. They will be largely on a cost-plus-fixed fee basis.

Civilian goods—$75,000,000 for food, clothing, fertilizer, seed, and other goods.

Public health—$3,000,000 to cope with tuberculosis and malaria particularly.

Training—$1,500,000 to train Greek nationals both in Greece and the United States in modern government administration, industry and other lines.

Athens, July 11 (AP)—Capture of two fortified positions in a continuing mountain-peak battle between the Greek army and guerrillas near the Albanian border was reported today by the Greek general staff. A cabinet minister said the guerrillas were trying to establish a Communist state in the area.

A general staff communique said that a "great" number of rifles, 10,000 rounds of ammunition, 15 cases of hand grenades and 13 mortars were seized.

The Greeks said that a force of some 4,000 guerrillas was fighting on the 6,000-foot peaks of Mount Grammos only 15 miles from Albania.

George Stratos, minister of war, told a news conference that anti-

OLSON, BOAK GO TO PRISON

Youth and Accomplice In Jailbreak Sentenced
By Judge Bell

Vernel LeRoy Olson, who became 18 years old July 6, yesterday was sentenced by Judge Frank A. Bell to serve 7 1/2 to 15 years in state branch prison at Marquette. Olson had pleaded guilty to three charges of breaking and entering Escanaba business places, and to a charge of breaking out of the Delta county jail. Twelve other felony charges against Olson had previously been dismissed.

Harry Boak, 27, of Charlevoix, who pleaded guilty to aiding Olson escape from jail by supplying him with a hacksaw blade, was sentenced to 2 to 7 years in Marquette branch prison. An illegitimacy charge against Boak was passed and then not prosecuted.

Johnson Gets 3-10 Years
According to a confession made by Olson after he was recaptured after five days, Boak smuggled a hacksaw blade to Olson, who sawed through the iron bars in his cell door to escape in the early morning of June 18.

The court ordered that the persons guilty to which Olson was sentenced should run concurrently, and that a sentence of one year in the county jail be served in his first year at Marquette.

Sentences in other criminal cases were as follows:
Robert Johnson, 18, of Isabella, charged with assaulting a Delta county young woman with intent to rape, sentenced to 3 to 10 years in Marquette branch prison.

Jack Bell of Harris, probation for two years, after the youth had made restitution of $1,700 to Elwood Rungtette of Harris and paid $100 court costs. Bell was charged with embezzlement.

Treatment Ordered
Oscar Knutson, charged with taking indecent liberties: Ordered committed to the state hospital at Newberry for psychiatric treatment.

George Shields, charged with breaking and entering in the night time: Two years probation and required to make restitution of $270 and pay $25 court costs.

Edgar Nadeau, unlawfully driving away an automobile: Two years probation and ordered to make restitution of $20 and pay court costs of $25.

Louis Duval, 64, of Escanaba, charged with statutory rape: Six months in the county jail, and following that two years probation and required to pay $100 costs at $10 a month.

The court adjourned last night for the weekend and is expected to resume Monday morning.

Two-County Health Board To Meet At Powers On Monday

Dr. William C. Harrison, director of the Delta-Menominee health district which was established effective July 1, yesterday announced that a meeting of the six-man district board of health will meet at 7 p. m. (EST) Monday at Pinecrest sanatorium, in Powers.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss and arrive at a reconciliation on certain policies not yet definitely established, said Dr. Harrison.

The health board is composed of three supervisors from Delta county: Albert Buckman, Gladstone; Walter Mannie, Rock; and Victor Nelson, Escanaba; and three from Menominee county: Albert Kipfer of Stephenson, chairman of the health board; Otis Eickmeyer and E. K. Converse of Menominee.

Vets Must Specify Change In Address

Veterans in institutional and on-the-job training who submit changes of addresses to the Veterans Administration should indicate whether changes are temporary or permanent, officials of the U. P. VA office in Escanaba said yesterday.

In cases of permanent changes of address, specification will speed up the transfer of the veteran's records to the office having jurisdiction over the area in which he will be located.

Trainees going on short vacations and have subsistence checks due them should submit a change of address with a notation that it is only temporary so that checks will be forwarded.

'47 STATE FAIR BIGGEST EVER

Colorful Program Set;
Premiums Raised
For Livestock

The 1947 Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba Aug. 19-24 will be the biggest, most interesting and most educational fair ever presented in Northern Michigan. Harold Lindsay, secretary of the board of managers, predicted yesterday.

At the meeting of the board held Thursday at Blaney Park, premiums in the beef cattle, swine and sheep departments were increased to the level offered by the Wisconsin and Minnesota state fairs. The dairy cattle premiums have always been maintained at that level. There will be no exhibitor's fees and stall fees will be retained at their present low level.

The world famous Hollywood Disappearing Water Ballet and the Morganland Dancers will be presented as the grandstand feature at the state fair the first four nights, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The New York Hippodrome show will be presented as the afternoon attraction on each of the first four days.

A WLS barn dance troupe, featuring Mac and Boy, blind musicians, and the Sackett Sisters, will be presented Saturday afternoon and evening, August 23. Jimmie Lynch and his Death Dodgers will again be the Sunday afternoon and evening entertainment feature at the state fair.

Low Prices Prevail
In addition Zucchini, the Human Bullet, will be presented each day as a free act by the Gem City shows on the midway.

Low admission prices will be retained again this year in order to give all fair patrons an opportunity to see the grandstand attractions.

There will be a free gate every afternoon until 5 o'clock, except Sunday, thrill day. No reserved seats will be sold for the grandstand show on opening night, Tuesday, Aug. 19, when fair patrons will get an opportunity to see the full grandstand show at low general admission prices.

Tuesday will be queen's day, at which time the Upper Peninsula State Fair queen contest will be held and the queen crowned at the grandstand show. Wednesday is Governor's Day. Thursday is 4-H club day, Friday is Old Timers day, Saturday is Farmer's day and Sunday, the last day of the fair, is thrill day.

At its meeting Thursday, the state fair board passed a resolution of condolence to Mrs. Patrick, Kelly, of Watersmeet. Mr. Kelly, a member of the board of managers of the state fair for many years, died recently.

Oberg Twins Land On Journal's Front Page

Jimmy and Johnny Oberg, two year old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Torval Oberg, of Milwaukee, grandsons of Mrs. Christina Oberg, 1318 Eighth avenue south, Escanaba, landed on the front page of the Milwaukee Journal yesterday. Torval Oberg is a former resident of Escanaba but has resided in Milwaukee for about 20 years.

The story, together with a two column full length picture of the twin boys, concerned the twin's bathroom exploits, under a two column headline.

The story, taken from the Journal, follows:
"Nobody noticed 2 year old Jimmy Oberg and his twin brother, Johnny, Thursday morning when they crept into the bathroom of their home at 2769 N. Booth st. Nobody heard them close the door and bolt it from the inside.

Mrs. Lucille Rubin, who takes care of the children for Mr. and Mrs. Oberg, heard the water rush in the pipes and went to the bathroom to see what was going on. The door was locked, however, and she supposed an uncle of the twins who lives with the family was inside.

"But he wasn't. Jimmy or Johnny — nobody can be sure which one it was—had turned on the water. And the water was flowing faster than the drain could handle it. The water rose in the bowl and then began to dribble over the top. Then it gushed over the top of the bowl.

"Instead of shutting off the water or opening up the door, the twins used typical 2 year old logic to solve their problem. They sat down on the floor and started to cry.

"Mrs. Rubin called to the twins and rattled the door. The twins screamed louder. The water began pouring out from under the door.

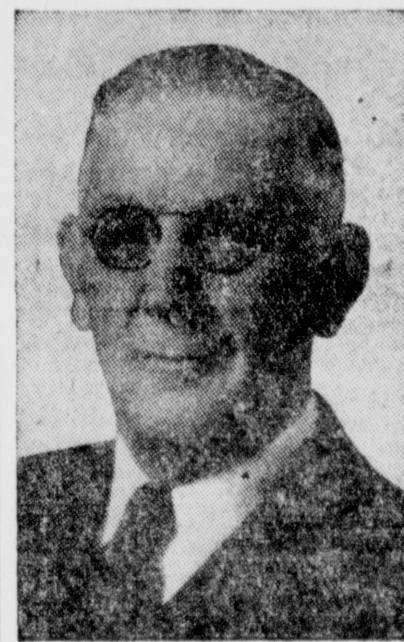

"Mrs. Rubin called the fire department. Truck 10 was there in half a dozen minutes. A little lake had formed outside the bathroom door. The twins were crying at the tops of their lungs.

"Rather than batter down the door, the firemen raised a ladder, removed the screen, and forced the bathroom window. There, in the center of the bathroom, sitting in the water and wailing, were two very frightened little boys.

"Half an hour later the twins were whooping around the house again, all dressed up in clean, dry clothes Mrs. Rubin was sitting quietly at the telephone, pondering just how to break the news to Mama and Papa Oberg."

Alpena Man Candidate
For Congressional Nomination

STATE SENATOR Otto Bishop of Alpena, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman from the 11th Michigan district, was a visitor in Escanaba while on a campaign tour prior to the primary election to be held July 29. He was accompanied by John A. Lake, Petoskey business man, who holds the office of postmaster of the state senate. Mr. Bishop is a lifelong resident of Alpena. He was employed in the Alpena National Bank for 20 years, following which he established the Alpena Fisheries company, later branching out into the insurance and coal business. He is now serving his seventh term in the state senate, and is chairman of the finance committee, vice chairman of the committees on highways and senate business, and a member of the interstate conference committee.

Senator Bishop sponsored the tourist advertising legislation in the senate at every session, and was the author of several important measures dealing with state finance. His senatorial district comprises seven of the nine Lower Michigan counties in the 11th congressional district.

Gasoline Shortage

THE confusion that has developed regarding the gasoline shortage in the middle west is highly discouraging, not only to operators of filling stations but to the motorists and general public as well.

The gasoline companies, blaming accelerated demand for a shortage of gasoline supplies, announced that supplies to dealers would be reduced to 1946 levels but actual allocations have been less than last year's supplies. Many stations have already been notified that their 1947 allotments for the summer period will be 10 per cent under 1946 shipments. Because 1946 was not a particularly heavy traffic year, due to shortage of tires and other factors, the reduction for 1947 is being keenly felt.

Although automobile travel has expanded this year, most service stations report that current pumpage still is below the prewar level. Gasoline supplies in prewar years were more than ample to meet the demand.

The chairman of the Detroit Board of Commerce, after meeting with representatives of the petroleum industry, announced recently that there would be no shortage of gasoline anywhere in Michigan. That announcement was followed by the reduction in quotas to individual dealers.

The public is entitled to know more about the gasoline shortage and why it exists. Increased demand in 1947 over 1946 apparently is not in itself sufficient explanation.

Czechs Withdraw

THE manner in which Soviet Russia controls her satellite nations is indelibly portrayed by the action of Czechoslovakia in reversing an original decision to attend the Paris conference on European economic recovery.

There is no doubt that the Czechs desire to participate in the recovery program. Original acceptance of the invitation proved this, but the Communist premier of Czechoslovakia, Klement Gottwald who is in Moscow, got his instructions from the Kremlin to withdraw Czechoslovakia from the conference. In announcing reversal of their decision, Czechoslovakia was honest enough to concede that their participation in the conference is impossible because it might be construed as an action against the Soviet Union.

All other nations under the Russian orbit likewise have chosen to remain out of the conference—Poland, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Albania and even Finland, whose heart is with America but whose land is under the Russian thumb. None of these nations dare to subject their people to Russian displeasure and the inevitable reprisals.

The lineup for the European economic recovery conference reveals tragically that the continent is divided into two camps—democracy supported by the western states and Communism supported by Russia and her satellite nations of the east. It is not the kind of a situation that enhances the prospects for world peace.

Shirking Responsibility

WHILE the final report on the Community Chest drive has not been issued, tentative figures indicate that only about half the quota was attained in the spring canvass to raise funds to finance the activities of the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other worthy organizations.

The Community Chest was adopted here as a panacea for the multiplicity of fund raising campaigns. The idea was to raise all the funds needed for various activities by one big drive, thereby avoiding duplication of effort and repeated annoyance of the public.

But the Community Chest plan has failed to raise the desired quota for one reason or another. As a result, various humanitarian and character-building programs will have to be curtailed.

The Boy Scouting program is suffering because of inadequate financing. The organization has been without the services of a paid executive for some weeks now, and the longer this situation remains the greater will be the disintegration of the Scout organization because. The Salvation Army also has been struggling along with meager funds.

Either the Community Chest plan must be made to work in this community, or the various participating organizations will have to return to the original plan of conducting individual fund raising campaigns. There is no alternative, as long as the community shirks its responsibilities in the Community Chest program.

The Public Pays

THE cost to the American public of the huge wage increase that John L. Lewis has won for the nation's coal miners is being added up now and it will be plenty.

Aside from the direct increase in the price of coal that the American public will buy for their winter fuel, estimated at 85 cents to $1.00 a ton, there will be an increase in the price of steel of about $5 a ton. This will result in higher prices for virtually everything made of steel, including automobiles, refrigerators, washers, farm equipment, rails and many other commodities. The railroads in turn are going to ask for higher freight rates to compensate for the boost in their fuel bill and for higher operating costs.

The $5 a ton steel price boost that the industry is contemplating is not figured entirely on the increased coal costs. In fact there is considerable suspicion that the steel industry yielded to the excessive demands of Lewis primarily to provide an excuse to counter with a sizeable price boost for steel that would cover not only higher coal costs but other operating costs and a higher profit margin as well.

And that may not be all that the coal increase may mean in higher costs to the American public. There is growing fear that other labor organizations will press for wage boosts comparable to that granted the coal miners. As living costs rise under the pressure of higher coal and steel prices, the demand for further wage boosts will be inevitable.

Higher commodity prices naturally will adversely affect the prospective market, just as the high cost of homes has already busted the house construction boom.

BELEATED ACTION

(Marquette Mining Journal)

For 14 years Michigan has been selling half-year auto license plates, but at long last, according to word from Lansing, they are to be discontinued. That action should have been taken several years ago, to save considerable needless expense and a lot of extra bookkeeping for the secretary of state's staff.

The half-year license plate was adopted during depression years when the unemployment load was large and nearly everybody was short of cash. There was good reason for it then and it probably kept a lot of cars on the road which otherwise would have been tied up. But it should have been abandoned with the end of hard times. Now, with relatively little unemployment and wage levels at an all-time high, there is no reason why the owner of an automobile cannot buy a full-year license.

The person who hasn't enough cash to buy a full license is in no position, economically, to own and operate a car.

FINLAND DESERVES A CUT

(Detroit News)

No country ever made a better investment than did Finland when she determined to pay in full her World War I debt to the United States. She became the sole non-defaulter among our debtors, and this showing of character won her so firm a place in American regard that even her alliance with Germany in World War II could not destroy our friendship for her.

The United States, alone among the Allies, never declared war on Finland. Friendly relations were strained but never interrupted. The annual debt payment, indeed, continued to be made throughout the war through the Finnish minister in Washington.

This durable, though much-tested friendship, is one this country should cultivate further by giving Finland in her turn a demonstration of the American sense of honor.

The interest charged on the debt is still 3 per cent agreed on in 1923, which is half again as heavy a rate as that charged of other international debtors during and since the recent war. It would be an act of honor to reduce the interest to the 2 per cent or less which is the going rate.

The Finns this month faithfully paid their latest instalment on the debt. But so much of their payments to the United States has gone for interest that the principal, originally $8,400,000, is still more than $8,000,000. They are now in sad financial straits because of heavy reparations exacted by Russia.

To reduce the interest at the time of next year's instalment would be an honorable and gracious act, assuring Finland of our continued respect and sympathy.

New Bedford is celebrating its one hundredth anniversary in gala fashion, and in fancy that sound of revelry would be the boys just off a whaler.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

St. Paul: How did the Kiwanis Club get its name, and does it have any meaning?—S. U. A.

Answer: The Kiwanis Club was organized in 1914. The booklet, "Kiwanis in Brief," explains the name thus: "Considerable thought was given to the selection of a name for the new organization. Mr. C. M. Burton, historian for the City of Detroit and the State of Michigan, was consulted, and after some research submitted several Indian names, among which was the word 'ke-wan-is.' This had been found in an Indian vocabulary compiled by Bishop Frederic Baraga, pioneer of Upper Michigan, and its derived meanings were 'To make one's self known; to impress one's self.' Kiwanis is pronounced: kee-WAH-niss, or: kuh-WAH-niss.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—War department planners are trying to figure out what the army's deficit in manpower will be in view of the likelihood that Congress will go home without doing anything about universal military training.

It is a question of paring down here and cutting there in an effort to make do with the men who will be available. The army has estimated that 1,070,000 men will be needed, during the coming twelve months, as a minimum for the occupation of Germany and Japan and the other far-flung commitments of our foreign policy.

The late figures show that a voluntary recruiting will fail to meet this minimum by from 100,000 to 150,000 men. This is not nearly as large a deficit as had been originally feared. Voluntary recruiting has been more successful than early pessimistic army estimates indicated. It was up to schedule last month and it is expected to run close to the desired monthly goal during the summer.

CAREERS IN ARMY

Army planners are particularly pleased with this showing at a time when employment is at probably the highest level in the nation's history. Even the smallest recession would immediately step up the number of young men voluntarily enlisting. A bill recently passed by Congress offers better inducements for long-range careers in the army, and the hope is that it will give new impetus to the recruiting drive.

This, however, just about covers the credit side of the army's ledger. High officials, both civilian and military, are pessimistic on the score of the very narrow margin on which their planning is based. Set against this margin, a deficit of 100,000 to 150,000 men looks very large.

The only reserves the army has are two divisions, one of which is not up to full strength. An infantry division, it is at about 85 per cent of strength. The other one, an air borne division is virtually at full strength. This means under 30,000 men in reserve for any emergency that might arise. About 150,000 Americans comprise our army of occupation in Germany and Austria. The total for Japan and Korea is 250,000. The necessity for constant replacements, who must be trained and transported across great distances, commits large additional numbers of men.

That is one reason why the opinion is growing within the war department that our occupation force in Japan should be cut to a skeleton police force. Gen. Douglas MacArthur has long been advocating this. It was behind his recent statement urging an early peace settlement with the Japanese.

PULL OUT OF KOREA?

Some officials, and among them are important policy-makers, go so far as to say that we should pull out of Korea entirely. They argue that, while the Russians would take over, the difficulties of the Soviet position in Korea, in view of the fierce conflicts rending that unhappy country, would be such as to give them slight advantage.

Pulling out of Korea and leaving merely a police force in Japan, the army would save upwards of 200,000 men. This would make it possible to balance the manpower books on the basis of voluntary recruiting and add something to the reserve at the same time. The story in Korea is a perpetual wrangle with the Russians, plus the difficulties that our occupation has encountered with ardent Korean Nationalists now freed from years of cruel oppression under the Japanese.

It is, of course, not a foregone conclusion that Congress will put aside the universal training proposal. There is a chance that it will pass the house. But by his stump speech denouncing the training program, Sen. Robert A. Taft, the Republican leader, made it virtually certain that the measure would not come up for a vote in the senate.

The men responsible for our military establishment pin their hopes on the fact that, in public-opinion polls, sentiment for military training has been steadily rising. In the latest poll, about 74 per cent of all persons asked said they favored the universal training program.

But the organized lobby against it is both articulate and influential. Their weakness is that they rarely talk about constructive alternatives which might help to keep the nation strong in a time of troubled uncertainty. This last is the ever-present worry of responsible men in the war department.

"BER-nerd" is prevalent in England. Sorry again, but the name Colby was brought to America in the 1600's by Anthony Colby who came from England and settled in Boston, and later went to live in Amesbury, Mass., where his house still stands.

Q. Does Orson Welles' given name mean anything?—C. M.

A. The name Orson is the English form of the French word orson which means "the cub of a bear."

Q. My middle name is Malherbe, a name that has come down for several generations through my mother's family. Has it a meaning?—J. M. T.

A. Yes, it is French for "bad or evil herb," a popular name for certain poisonous plants, such as the deadly carrot. The French pronunciation is: mal-ARBE. The name was borne by the French poet Francois de Malherbe (1555-1628) with whom you may have some remote family connection.

THE BOTTLENECK—The Straits of Mackinac is a bottleneck for traffic north and south in Michigan. Until some improved means to facilitate the movement of traffic is constructed there the Upper Peninsula will receive only a portion of its potential volume of vacation travel. Latest example of this harmful condition occurred during the Fourth of July week end just past. The Associated Press reported on Friday, July 4: "By 7 a. m. a three-mile line of automobiles stretched southward from Mackinaw City, waiting to cross the Mackinac Straits to St. Ignace. By late afternoon the docks still were not cleared and highway department officials said they had never witnessed anything like it."

PALLIATIVES—State highway department officials did not express surprise over bottleneck conditions at the Straits. They only said they had never "witnessed anything like it."

They were not surprised for the very good reason that they expected to happen just what did happen. The year 1940 was a then all-time high for traffic at the Straits. It was exceeded in the years following the war and this year will set a new record. Next year will probably be larger, barring some now unforeseen factor. If the general level of prosperity is maintained, traffic will increase still more in the years to come.

Unfortunately the highway department has not seen fit to take more than tentative steps toward alleviating the condition. A cure cannot be effected with palliatives and meanwhile the tourist industry of the Upper Peninsula will suffer.

THE REMEDY—The state highway department in 1940-41 constructed a three-quarter-mile-long causeway on the St. Ignace side of the Straits. It was designed for use as a ferry dock now, and in the future as an approach to a Straits bridge.

The causeway has never been completed with the construction of dock facilities at its end. If this were done and the causeway used it would shorten the ferry run by more than one-half and would step up the movement of traffic without the cost of additional boats.

The present administration of the state highway department has not only shown no inclination to complete the causeway, but has shown itself in favor of piecemeal improvements of the present inadequate dock facilities at St. Ignace. Now the department has received bids for the widening of the main street in St. Ignace to relieve traffic congestion, an expenditure which in no way will correct the basic problem of the Straits bottleneck.

SOMETIME A BRIDGE—Eventually it will be necessary to construct a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac. Engineering surveys for this project have been made and the causeway approach was recommended. Until the bridge is built the causeway should be completed and used as it was originally designed to be used. Highway funds spent for paving a St. Ignace street, or for the construction of an ice-breaker costing $4,500,000 is money wasted so far as any permanent improvement is con-

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Rains broke the heat wave in Michigan Friday—at least temporarily in some sections of the state—but in the Detroit area the precipitation was so heavy and accompanied by hail and lightning that it brought new problems.

Youngstown, O.—A restrike call by the steel workers organizing committee for employees of Republic steel plants here apparently failed today. Republic steel officials said, "not a man left the plant."

Spectators at the Escanaba Yacht Club's midsummer regatta to be held next Sunday afternoon on the north shore will be given details of the races over a ship to shore hookup, it was learned yesterday.

Honolulu—The navy launched its final efforts to find Amelia Earhart in the vast Pacific tonight as the mighty aircraft carrier Lexington sped toward the equator to send her 62 planes into the far flung hunt.

Twenty Years Ago
Letters expressing the approval of a variety of organizations and agencies of the Chamber of Commerce plan for looping Lake Michigan are still coming in.

Jackson, Mich.—Indications of an underground traffic in "dope" within the walls of the Michigan state prison here were brought to light Monday night by Warden Harry H. Jackson, when he ordered the arrest of Joseph Moore, 32 years old, night prison guard, after the latter is alleged to have attempted to smuggle 100 capsules of Morphine into the institution when he reported for duty.

Three thousand persons attended the dedication of the two new wings of St. Francis hospital here Sunday afternoon.

Gov. Sigler is to be commended for vetoing the bill providing for construction of the costly and unnecessary ice breaker.

UNDER FIRE—In Lansing at the present time the state administration board is delving into highway plans, policies and expenditures. The probe followed charges that the department has no over-all policy or program in the expenditure of highway funds.

TYPICAL SCENE—The Mackinaw City-St. Ignace traffic scene at the height of the travel period in summer and during the deer hunting season is enough to make a tourist travel promoter weep. Hundreds of thousands of vacationers wanting to go some place—and held in lines three and four miles long waiting for a boat. Waits of one and one-half to three hours are not uncommon. In hot weather, with motors running and the cars moving along at a snail's pace, radiators and tempers boil over.

The congestion is discouraging to the traveler, who sometimes decides to turn back, or to stay in the Straits region. Here was the situation on the Fourth of July week end as reported by the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News: "Highways were packed with visiting cars, all emerging from the St. Ignace bottleneck where four Straits ferries and a huge car ferry had run "wild" over a 48 hour period.

"Early morning motorists, both today and yesterday, reported that US-2 was dotted with the automobiles of sleeping motorists who were unable to obtain rooms. Cab drivers and operators reported that all their accommodations were taken and that travelers were sleeping in cars in their driveways."

The friend added that all these were trifles, then Michael Angelo declared, "It may be so, but recollect that trifles make perfection and that perfection is no trifle."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—The nation's top county agents—diligent promoters of bigger American crops—came away from the White House the other day convinced that the president not only was a perfect host, but also had a sense of humor especially when it came to the subject of Missouri.

"You fellows are in pretty much the same position that I am," Truman told 16 leaders of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents. "The people in farm states look to the county agent for help on every conceivable problem affecting their welfare, and he's got to produce."

Truman added that none of the county agents he knew ("I put the first one to work in Jackson county, Missouri, years ago") had shirked his responsibility. "I think all of you are to be congratulated on the swell job you are doing in helping to feed the country," said the president.

One of his visitors remarked that he understood the president worked "farmer's hours" himself.

"That's not far wrong," smiled Truman. "I'm on the job from 5 o'clock in the morning until midnight most days."

The subject of Missouri and its mules was injected into the discussion when the president reminiscing about some of his experiences at county fairs. He was always a great devotee of county fairs, he observed jokingly, until he witnessed an unfortunate spectacle at one several years before the war.

"They imported two Kansas mules to race a pair of home-grown mules at a fair near Independence, Missouri," he recalled. "But the act backfired, because those Kansas critters won the race hands down. It was the most humiliating thing that ever happened to Missouri."

WALL STREET TEAMS WITH LEWIS

When Harry Truman and cabinet colleagues first heard that J. P. Morgan's U. S. Steel Corporation and the Mellon-controlled Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal company had handed John L. Lewis a 45-cents-an-hour wage increase, plus welfare fund, plus almost everything else he asked for, they were flabbergasted, shell-shocked and left gasping for air.

And though they are still somewhat stunned, they have begun to rub their eyes and try to figure out what hidden motives the Mellons and the Morgans had in giving John L. Lewis the greatest contract in labor history. By now they think they know the solution—politics, and Dewey-politics at that.

To understand Mr. Truman's sense of shock it should be remembered that many people considered him something of a hero last December for slapping down John L. Lewis.

Furthermore, it was only one year ago that the coal operators complained bitterly about Secretary of the Interior Krug's giving Lewis an increase of 18½ cents—the same increase already given the steel, auto, and other unions. The government, according to the walls of the operators, was surrendering under their profits to John L. and six months later, President Truman threw everything he had into the battle against John L., including an injunction and the Supreme Court, in order to end what most of the nation thought was an unfair demand by Lewis to renege on his contract.

Reversing all this, Ben Fairless of U. S. Steel and George Humphrey of Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal have now given Lewis everything he asked for. In fact, they have given him more than he ever dreamed he could get.

As usual, Lewis had started out by putting his demands high. If he had followed previous patterns, he would have accepted a compromise considerably lower. But he didn't have to. As he saw the big coal and steel companies willing to yield, he increased his demands and even tacked on provisions nullifying the Taft-Hartley Labor Act. His victory makes every other labor leader green with envy.

—LEWIS LOVES DEWEY—

Truman administration sleuths, busy all week trying to find out why the steel industry surrendered so supinely, now think they have found the answer.

John L. Lewis, sworn enemy of the Democratic party, for some time has been making quiet political love to Tom Dewey. It was known that during the Taft-Hartley battle, Lewis and Big Bill Hutcheson, head of the AFL Carpenters Union, sent word to Albany urging that Dewey keep mum about the labor bill. Whether because of this advice or his own shrewd political judgment, Dewey said absolutely nothing.

Now that the battle is over Lewis plans to revive labor's non-partisan league, hopes to weld this into a potent force to back Dewey, and has vowed to destroy both Taft, whom he hates, and Truman, who used the Supreme Court and an injunction against him.

In return for Lewis's support of Dewey, administration leaders claim a deal was worked out by which J. P. Morgan's U. S. Steel Corporation, and the Mellon-Controlled Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal company boosted Lewis's prestige with labor by handing him the juiciest contract ever negotiated.

They also point out that the increase to Lewis doesn't cost the steel companies a cent, since they merely pass it on to the consumer. And since all the steel sold abroad is paid for by U. S. loans to foreign governments, they don't have to worry about its price there either.

Science begins to think there is something in the old belief about planting crops according to phases of the moon. And for all Science knows powdered bats' wings may cure rheumatism.

See that ranch house, Mr. Boggs!

Yes...but I still want to know where you're taking me!

And that one?

Yes, but you haven't told me...

SURE! ALL COWBOYS ARE AS HANDY WITH HAMMERS AND SAWS AS THEY ARE WITH SIX-GUNS AND BRANDIN' IRONS!

YOU BIG LUMMOX! I'M TRYIN' TO SHOW YOU WHERE YOU CAN GET CARPENTERS FOR THE SCHOOL ADDITION! THE RANCHERS BUILT THEIR OWN HOMES!

AND FURTHERMORE, MAJOR, I COULD BALANCE YOUR BUDGET ON MY LEFT EAR, RIDING A GOAT PIGGY-BACK THROUGH A WIND TUNNEL!

I'VE HEARD ENOUGH, MR. BUDD, BUT TALK ON!

BY GOLLY, HE'S OUT-TALKING THE MAJOR!

BUT WHY DOESN'T HE SHUT UP WHILE HE'S STILL AHEAD?

Labor Board Gets Foundry Dispute

Iron Mountain, Mich. — The Grede Foundries-CIO dispute over eligibility of four electors in the voting on June 24 by 72 employees at the plant on whether they desired to be represented by the UAW-CIO for collective bargaining purposes, went before the National Labor Relations Board, in Washington, D. C., after a hearing at the court house on the relative position of the two groups.

The hearing, begun at 10 a. m. yesterday, was concluded at 6 p. m.

Ivan Brown, president of the UAW-CIO local 952, said a decision by the board would, in ordinary procedure, be forthcoming in three or four months. Clarence Meier, hearings officer representing the 18th Region, NLRB, of Minneapolis, said the testimony would be forwarded immediately to Washington headquarters.

However, O. S. Hoebeck, of Milwaukee, company attorney, indicated yesterday that he would ask a month's extension of time, before the board's decision, so that he could file, on behalf of the company, a brief of testimony in support of the firm's position in the case. Ordinarily, only three or four days are allowed for filing of supporting briefs.

The rites will be held at the Morton Funeral home, with the Rev. G. A. Herbert officiating and burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

Mrs. Swanson was born in Oland, Sweden, on December 9, 1876, and came to the United States in 1896, living first at Woodhall, Ill., and coming to Manistique a year later. On March 23, 1901, she was married to Carl Swanson, who preceded her in death. Through the years of her residence here she has been a member of Zion Lutheran church. About a year ago she went to live at the Henry DeSautel home and it was there that she passed away.

Surviving her are two nieces, Mrs. Max Larson, Milan, Ill., and Mrs. Violet Johnson, Oneida, Ill.

Pallbearers at the funeral will be: Roy Anderson, Herbert K. Peterson, Alvin Nelson, Carlton Siddall, Fred Hahne and Mauritz Carlson.

Mary Schneider Observes Her 78th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Schneider yesterday was showered with greetings and congratulations, the occasion being her 78th birthday anniversary.

While women as a general rule are hesitant about admitting their age, Mrs. Schneider is proud of the fact that she still takes care, unassisted, of one of the largest residences in the city and a house full of roomers. And her friends tell her, in all sincerity, that she doesn't look a day over sixty.

Mrs. Schneider can well lay claim to the title of "pioneer resident." Daughter of the late August Miller, she came here from her native Wurttemberg, Germany with her mother in 1882 to join her father who had preceded them here. Manistique has been her home ever since. In 1888 she was married to Matt Schneider who passed away several years ago.

Mrs. Schneider doesn't pretend to lay down any rules for maintaining good health. "I work hard, I enjoy my friends and my conscience is clear," she says. She could add to that that she has lived the life of a good citizen and a friend to everyone.

Two things have helped particularly to gladden this birthday. One was the realization again this year that she was the first Manistique resident to pay taxes (an honor she has maintained for many years) and that among the greetings that arrived on her birthday was one from relatives in Germany. They said that while conditions were still bad in the French occupation zone, where they live, they were getting on fairly well. There were tears in her eyes when she mentioned this, but they were tears of joy.

Other players will be Len Courmay at first; Jack Croighton, second; Al Helsten, shortstop; Ben Helsten, third base; Fred Lesica, right field; Bob Broullier, center field; and Bob Larson, left field. 33rd Annual U.P. Golf Meet To Be Held In Menominee Aug. 14-17

FELLER WILL DEFEND TITLE

Runnerup Swanson And Onetime Champ Hogan Will Make Bid

The 33rd annual U. P. golf tournament will be held on two nine-hole Menominee courses, North Shore Golf Club and Riverside Country Club, on Aug. 14, 15, 16 and 17, with two major changes in tournament competition.

It will be the first four-day tournament in the history of the meet, with the finals scheduled for Sunday morning on Riverside Country Club, and for the first time in history there will be a 32-place championship flight.

The four-day tournament will be played with rushing through an 18-hole Saturday afternoon championship match after semi-finals in the morning and will give the champion and runner-up plenty of rest before the 18-hole finals grind.

Feller Defending Champ
The 32-player championship flight doubles previous championship flights and is going to make it plenty tough. It will also make the tournament more interesting for those who miss the championship flight because it will make pairings for other flights better balanced.

Don Feller of Escanaba, defending champion; Elmer Swanson of Escanaba, runner-up; and semi-finalists Cooney Hogan of Escanaba, and Glenn Thompson of Menominee, all entered again this year but they may have a run for the title from several ex-GIs who are back shooting for the U. P. crown.

Feller eliminated Hogan and Swanson took the measure of Thompson in the semi-finals a year ago at Highland Golf Club in Escanaba.

Three Veteran Judges
Three peninsula golf veterans will act as judges for this year's meet, Francis Wall and A. J. Whitford of Riverside Country Club of Menominee, and Dr. G. W. Messinger of Portage Lake Golf Club of Houghton.

The annual tournament banquet will be held at North Shore Golf Club Thursday, opening day, at 6:30 p. m.
Both North Shore, the host club, and Riverside have made major building improvements this year. At North Shore a new concrete block construction porch has been built, doubling the floor space of the club, while at Riverside an entire new clubhouse is being built to replace the one destroyed by fire a year ago. Both construction jobs are scheduled to be finished and ready for the U. P. tournament.

GIANTS, CARDS SPLIT TWIN BILL

New York, July 11 (AP)—The New York Giants ambushed the St. Louis Cardinals after dropping the first game of a doubleheader today, 4-3, and pole-axed the world champions in a 17-9 second game that was shortened by the merciful intervention of darkness in the eighth inning.

Six Giant homers, two each by Billy Rigney and Sid Gordon and one each by Clint Hartung and Willard Marshall, his 20th, completely submerged the Cards in the second game after they had taken a five-run lead in the first inning.

TIGERS SPLIT WITH RED SOX

Detroit, July 11 (AP)—Little Stubby Overmire saved the Detroit Tigers' precarious hold on second place in the American League today by blanking the Boston Red Sox 3-0 after the Sox won the opener of a doubleheader, 4-3.

The Tiger southpaw subdued Boston's sluggers on four singles after Detroit had yielded the runner-up position for the time being by bowing to Tex Hughson in the opener in a duel with Dizzy Trout. Bobby Doer and Wally Moses drove in all Boston's runs in the opener with a double each. Hoot Evers celebrated his return to the Tiger lineup by singling in two runs in the sixth of the second game. Evers had been in a hospital after being hit on the head by a pitched ball.

Four Hits By Cox Help Pirates Take Phil Crew, 7 to 2

Philadelphia, July 11 (AP)—Billy Cox clouted four safeties tonight as Ernie Bonham held the Philadelphia Phillies to six hits to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-2 triumph in the third game of their series before 12,670 fans. It was Bonham's seventh win against two setbacks.

half of the season.
Gladstone emerged as the champion of the first half after its 2-2 victory over Republic last Sunday. That was victory No. 7 for the Redskins. As a matter of fact, they have not been beaten since those ever-surprising Negaunee Rovers turned the trick by a 5-2 count way back on June 1. This summer, that is!

With Escanaba and Munising pushing hard, the Redskins start the second half and season championship quests by trekking to Chatham, while the Bears and the Munising Bonds fight it out between themselves for second-place honors and a possible tie for first—should Chatham suddenly find itself capable of knocking off Gladstone.

Manistique is host to Trenary tomorrow in a game in which Trenary will be out for a win in an effort to pull even with the Cardinals.

In the northern division, Humboldt will be out to recover a measure of lost prestige by invading Marquette for a tilt with the Legionnaires; Gwin will trek to Ishpeming to play the capable Hematites who last Sunday nipped Munising, 6-5, in the Bonds' first loss in seven games, and Negaunee will be host to Republic.

U. P. Softball Meet Plans To Be Aired At Meeting July 20

Final plans for Upper Peninsula district and regional softball tournaments will be discussed at a meeting of the U. P. Softball association to be held in Ishpeming Sunday, July 20, beginning at 2, it was announced here yesterday.

District commissioners will be given the rosters of all teams in their respective districts, and umpires for the U. P. softball meets will be selected and approved, it was pointed out.

All umpires interested in officiating at the U. P. tournaments are asked to attend the meeting or to submit their names in writing to their respective commissioners or to George Grenholm, Escanaba, head of the association.

The problem of determining which class each team will compete in will be ironed out at this session. It is understood that teams composed of youths will compete in Class C, but no definite decision has been reached regarding the designation of A and B teams.

Team managers are again reminded of the July 15 deadline for submitting team rosters. Teams whose rosters are not mailed to George Grenholm by July 15 will not be eligible to compete in the district or regional events. A $3 sanction fee must accompany each entry.

This fee, it was pointed out, will register the team with the U. P. association, the state group and the Amateur Softball Association of America.

Phil Marchildon and relief hurler Bob Savage and Russ Christopher limited the Indians to four hits.

The Sports Parade

BY JIM WARD

As they used to say in the Navy: "All right, here it is!" or "hear this" or whatever your interpretation of the ship P. S. (public address) system scramble used to be.

All of which is to say that as of this moment, we are en route to Camp Grayling for 15 days of field training with 5,000 other troops in the state of Michigan.

The Delta county unit of nearly 40 khaki-clad young men will participate in two weeks of intensive training that will include familiarization firing with the newest and latest weapons designed by the War Department since the Japs and the Nazis quit firing.

As you may recall, that was way back in the late summer of 1945—Aug. 14, as far as the Pacific war was concerned. Seems like a long time ago, doesn't it? And you're probably wondering why a bunch of jokers want to go to National Guard camp.

Maybe they don't want to go. That's a new thought, isn't it?

All-American To Coach One U.P. All-Star Team

Negaunee, July 11—Arthur L. Krueger, All-American center at Marquette university in 1933, has been named as head coach of the North all-stars for the Upper Peninsula all-star football game, it is announced by Oral J. "Moose" LaCombe, director.

Selection of Krueger, a surprise choice, was the result of several communications between LaCombe and Ralph Heikkinen, Upper Peninsula All-American with the University of Michigan a few years back.

Heikkinen, asked to coach one of the U. P. teams, was forced to turn down the proposal because he is tied up as an instructor in the Marquette university law school. He wrote a strong recommendation to LaCombe on Krueger's behalf.

Krueger is teaching in the Milwaukee school system, and also is freshman coach for Marquette university. He expects to assume an administrative position in the Milwaukee school next year. He served as head football coach at South high school (Milwaukee) for nine years, during which time he won three city championships and tied for one. His teams won 57 victories in 72 games.

Murray praised Krueger as "an exceptionally fine coach, who has fine manner with boys." Krueger, Murray said, is regarded as a "gentleman of the first order, a good organizer and an excellent coach."

The addition of Krueger completes the head coaching staff for the game. Last week LaCombe selected Faust L. (Frosty) Ferzacca, coach of Green Bay West high school, as head coach for the South squad. Ferzacca had requested to be assigned to the South squad, since he would be in charge of boys from in or near his home town of Iron Mountain.

Coaches and players will report to Negaunee Friday, Aug. 8, and practice will begin Saturday, Aug. 9. This will give the teams eight days to get in shape for the event, which is slated for Saturday evening, Aug. 16, under the lights on the Playgrounds field.

Brooklyn, July 11 (AP)—Lefty Vic Lombardi pitched his first complete game of the season tonight as he hurled a four-hit 5-0 shutout victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The pint-sized Brooklyn southpaw stretched the Dodgers' win streak to four, and their seventh in a row over the Cubs. It was his fourth victory to seven defeats made possible by four double plays.

Singles by Carl Furillo and Pee Wee Reese and a triple by Johnny Jorgensen accounted for two runs in the second inning and Dixie Walker singled, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Bruce Edwards' single in the fourth.

Lombardi drove home a run in the sixth to conclude the Brooks' 10-hit attack against starter Claude Passeau and Arky Vaughan. Jackie Robinson doubled to open the seventh.

National Women's College Golf Cup Goes To Miss Spork

Columbus, O., July 10 (AP)—A 20-year-old Detroit redhead who refused to let a missed 20-inch putt disturb her smooth swing won the 1947 national women's collegiate golf championship today. Shirley Spork, Michigan State Normal sophomore, down her favored rival, 19-year-old Grace Lenczyk of Arnold college, one up on the 18th green at the Ohio State university course.

It was an upset for the Detroit girl who had been expected to wilt under the pressure from Miss Lenczyk, the 1947 Tam O'Shanter champion. But, Miss Spork came through after losing both the 13th and 14th holes and going one down.

Traveler Newsom Moves To Yankees

Chicago, July 11 (AP)—Bobo Newsom, the travel-seasoned, once bombastic right-handed pitcher, was obtained by the New York Yankees today and he observed that he might help their pennant chances.

"Not that they're not a cinch already without me," he added as an afterthought.

A Yankee club spokesman said in St. Louis that Newsom had been obtained on waivers from the Washington Senators where he won four and lost six games this year. The big major league veteran will join the Yankees Sunday in Chicago and probably pitch that day against the White Sox.

IRON MOUNTAIN TO BATTLE VFW

Nine-Inning Game Set For 8:45 Tonight At Memorial Field

Another Iron Mountain softball team visits Escanaba tonight to battle the local V.F.W. in a nine-inning contest on Memorial Field at 8:45. The Vets are chaffing at the bit after losing two straight games in local league play this week and are anxious to start another winning streak at the expense of the visitors.

Either Paul Larson or Louis Kositzke will be on the pitching rubber for the locals and Dave Larson will catch. No word has been received concerning their opponent's battery.

The preliminary at 7:30 will present the newly organized Escanaba Taverns in a non-league contest with Larmays. The Taverns will use Ike Eis or Bobby Gereau on the mound with Dale Woods receiving. Tommy Bravak or Billy Porath will chuck for Larmays with Bitner handling the catching chores.

YANKEES WHIP BROWNS, 3-1

St. Louis, July 11 (AP)—The New York Yankees made the utmost use of the trio of hits Ellis Kinder allowed them today, and with the aid of some fancy clutch pitching by Allie Reynolds, they whipped the luckless St. Louis Browns, 3 to 1, for their tenth straight victory.

Kinder, bidding for his sixth victory, had the ertswile bombers completely subdued most of the time and deserved a better fate. All three Yankee runs were scored after two were out and one came in on a muff of a high fly by Walt Judnich.

Meyland Explains Change In State Compensation Law

Munising—Walter C. Meyland, local MSES office manager, announced yesterday that a change in the Michigan Unemployment Compensation law has been effected. This change, he said, will make employers and employees more responsible to the provisions of the compensation act.

Under the changes enacted, Meyland remarked, there will be stiffer disqualification penalties for claimants; provisions of more authority for the local claims examiner; and a revision of the method of charging benefits against employers' reserve accounts.

Meyland continued by saying that, effective immediately, claimants for unemployment benefits must be able to show that they are seeking work, in addition to being registered for a job with the Michigan state employment service. This is interpreted to mean that the claimant is expected to show he has been scanning the help wanted advertisements in the daily and weekly papers serving Alcona county, Meyland said, and that he must be registered with the business agent of his union or other employing medium.

The claimant must also notify his former employer that he is available for work and advise them of his address and he is also expected to make application to a wider group of employers for work closely akin to his highest skill or similar skills on a week-to-week basis.

It was further explained by Meyland that benefits paid after the effective date of this law, July 8, will not be charged against the reserve accounts of employers if the claimant was separated under disqualifying circumstances, such as misconduct, voluntary leaving without good cause, and refusal of suitable work.

Other amendments to the law to take effect January 1, 1948, Meyland pointed out, provide that the existing benefit formula will be changed. The provisions to take effect at the start of next year, he said, provide that benefits will be computed on earnings during the year immediately preceding the week in which the claimant files his claim. The benefit year during which such benefits may be paid starts with the week in which the claim is filed, the manager remarked.

Most important to employers, Meyland said, is that charges will be made against the accounts of only one employer at a time, with the last employer being charged first, and then the next to last.

A claimant is entitled to two weeks of benefits for each three weeks worked in the base period, not to exceed 20 weeks, the manager said. Dependency allowances of $2 for each dependent child, up to a maximum of four, will be determined once for a benefit year, and will not be changed. The total maximum benefit remains the same, $28 a week, Meyland pointed out.

In conclusion, Meyland remarked that in cases where a claimant leaves one job to take another, he may restate one week of past benefit rights for each week he works with the new employer. The manager also added that if a claimant makes a false or misleading statement all benefit rights are cancelled, and if an employer makes a false or misleading statement for the purpose of avoiding the payment of benefits, he may be fined.

Haymaker Barrage Wins For Belloise

New York, July 11. (AP)—Steve Belloise, a better off the Bronx who knows very little else about the art of scrambling ears except tossing haymakers, tossed one of them tonight to stop George Abrams in five rounds of a scheduled ten round bout in Madison Square Garden. Belloise weighed 159½; Abrams 161.

In a bout marked entirely by clouting and confusion, Abrams was floored once each in the first and second rounds, and was also dropped again in the fifth before Referee Johnny Burns stepped in and halted the proceedings just as the bell sounded ending the fifth.

At one point in the second round, both fighters were on the floor together for four seconds. Later, in the same heat, when Burns stepped between them, Belloise got the idea that the fight had ended and Burns had to tell him to go to work again.

State Amateur Golf Wide Open Scramble

Port Huron, Mich., July 11. (AP)—With the defending champion a first round upset victim, the 1947 Michigan amateur golf tournament was a wide open scramble today as 16 of the state's top "play for fun" shot makers—more than half of them Detroiters—paraded into the third round of match play at Black River country club.

Lou Wendrow of Lansing, the 1946 champion, fell in shocking 3 Einar Finnson of Garden City in his first match, but most of the rest of the chief threats rolled along toward Saturday's third and fourth rounds.

Harold Brink of Grand Rapids, who lost to Wendrow in last year's "finals at Charlevoix, swamped Augie York of Saginaw 7 and 6 and stopped Lew James of Flint 4 and 3, playing two-under-par out for the 27 holes he required to win the matches.

Brink thus climbed into a bracket with medalist Harold

ARMS SHIPPED TO CRUSH RED BANDIT RAIDS

other objective of the guerrillas was to clear a way to enter Greece for an international force of 2,500, which he said is at the Yugoslav port of Split on the Adriatic coast. The battle began June 27. It was the first time the guerrillas had put up a determined resistance from behind fortified points since April 9.

The struggle is being waged on difficult terrain. The country is mountainous with communications primarily over paths. There are no roads of any consequence and all movement must be made by foot or by donkey.

Meanwhile, Napoleon Zervas, minister of public order, gave new details of what he said was Communist "Plan F" for the uprisings and said large stores of arms and ammunition had been uncovered in Athens, Kavalla, Salonika and other points.

Zervas said one phase of "Plan F" called for organization of strikes and sabotage to "cultivate the revolutionary spirit."

Another phase, he said, was a "Plan G" (or Gamma) which dealt specifically with an uprising in Athens set for 1 a. m., July 10.

He said that Communists, many of them high ranking members of the party, had confessed to a program for uprisings all over Greece which was frustrated by the arrest of nearly 3,000 leftists earlier in the week.

Trunk-Murder Case Husband Is Hunted In Yosemite Park

San Luis Obispo, Calif., July 11. (AP)—An unexplained Nevada address and a wide-open trail into Yosemite National Park led authorities toward Reno today in their hunt for Morley V. King, 46-year-old restaurant operator sought in connection with the trunk-murder of his Turkish-born wife.

"Madame" King, 48, identified as the former Portuguese Countess Christiana De Koehne, was found Wednesday morning in a rope-bound trunk, dead a week or more, strangled with a man's scarf still knotted about her neck.

King, Sheriff Murray C. Hathway, dropped from sight about 30 hours earlier after leaving a 19-year-old divorcee, who acted as his cashier, at her home.

The hunt for King swung from the Mexican border to Nevada today when Sheriff Hathway unearthed a Mina, Nev., address from a date book among Mrs. King's effects.

About the same time, Yosemite Park rangers found the license number of King's car—also missing—in the park register at the south entrance in Mariposa county. License numbers of visiting motorists are recorded as a matter of routine at park gates.

State-Owned Car Finally Granted Attorney General

Lansing, July 11. (AP)—The minor crisis involving transportation for Attorney General Eugene F. Black has been solved to the apparent satisfaction of all concerned.

Budget Director John A. Perkins has relented his order that Black return his state-owned car. The attorney general has been driving between Lansing and his Port Huron home daily since he lost a fight for living expenses in Lansing.

Perkins said Black would be furnished with a car if he wished it.

Crystal Lake Smelt Die By Thousands; Plague Investigated

Beulah, Mich., July 11. (AP)—Michigan's prized little silver fish—smelt—are dying by the thousands in Crystal Lake, only spot in the state which escaped an epidemic which virtually wiped them out of Great Lakes waters several years ago.

Estimates of the dead based on a count of 35,000 to the mile of beach, placed the total at 350,000 on the south shore of the lake alone.

Cause of the plague is being investigated by state fisheries experts, who were unable to explain similar losses in the past.

Flier Pickets Girl For Dating Another

Chicago, July 11. (AP)—When a young aviator's girl friend dated another man last night, the flier buzzed her neighborhood and peppered the area with leaflets reading:

"Unfair! Unfair! 'Eloise Grawgo is unfair on two serious charges. 1—going out with the wrong guy. 2—Not being up in this plane with me."

Miss Grawgo said she thought she knew who her airborne admirer might be, but she declined to identify him to reporters.

Vet Fiancee From Foreign Country May Come To U. S.

Any citizen veteran of the United States who has been honorably discharged from the U. S. armed forces after service in World War II may bring his fiancée from overseas to this country as a visitor if she is unable to procure a visa under the quota for the country of her birth, it was announced yesterday by the Sault Ste. Marie office of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization service.

The veteran must, however, post a bond of $500 guaranteeing that the marriage will take place within 90 days of the date of her admission to the United States, it was pointed out. The bond will be cancelled upon submission of the service of proof of marriage, the husband's honorable discharge and documentary evidence (i. e. birth certificate) of the veteran's U. S. citizenship.

If the marriage does not take place within 90 days, it was emphasized, the bond is forfeited and the proceeds used to defray the expenses of returning the girl to her native land, although in meritorious cases, the time during which the marriage is to take place may be extended upon application to the service.

Veterans with fiancées overseas who desire further information about this service are asked to write immediately to the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

President Expected To Preach Inflation Danger Next Week

Washington, July 11. (AP)—President Truman is expected to hoist anew his storm-warnings of inflation, in a special midyear economic report to Congress next week.

The White House announced that the president and cabinet decided today, in a cabinet meeting, to send the off-season message. They had just listened to the reading of a state-of-the-economy memorandum from the president's council of economic advisers.

The council study, on which Mr. Truman's message will be based, includes a discussion of the big wage gains made by John L. Lewis' 475,000 soft and hard coal miners this week.

Delta county's Company C of the 107th Engineer Combat Battalion, 40 strong, left at 6 this morning under the command of Capt. Roy Johnson for 15 days of field training at Camp Grayling with approximately 3,000 other Guardsmen of Michigan.
